intimating that the Govt of India have decided to grant, with the concurrence of the States concerned, rewards to persons in Indian States who have given notable assistance in recruiting and that a further communication will be sent re any gifts awarded to persons belonging to the Mysore State.

It is stated that Recruiting officers in Bombay have been instructed to consult responsible authorities in the States before making recommendations for their awards so that there is no objection to States themselves granting additional rewards to the recipients of Sanads should they thereafter desire to show appreciation of their services. If approved this will be sent to the Military Secretary for intimating the C.C of Secretariat Govt of India in the matter and for such other action as may be deemed fit

FROM

THE SECRETARY
TO THE HON'BLE THE RESIDENT IN MYSORE.

To

The Chief Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

Dated Bangalore, the 16th Decr. 1942.

REWARDS FOR RECRUITING IN INDIAN STATES.

SIR,

I am directed to state, for the information of the Government of Mysore, that the Government of India have decided to grant, with the concurrence of the States concerned, rewards to persons in Indian States who have given notable assistance in recruiting. These rewards, as in British India, will comprise Sanads and gifts, the former being classified as Viceroy's Sanads, Commander-in-Chief's Sanads, Adjutant-General's Sanads and Recruiting Officers' Sanads, issued in the name of the Commander-in-Chief; the gifts will consist of guns, swords, gold watches, etc. The rewards will be granted initially for services rendered since the outbreak of war and subsequently every six months. The Recruiting Officers have been instructed to consult responsible authorities in the States before making recommendations for these awards and there would, of course, be no objection to States themselves granting additional rewards to the recipients of the Sanads etc. should they desire to show appreciation of their services.

2. I am to add that a further communication will follow follow regarding any gifts awarded to persons belonging to the Mysore State.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

SECRETARY TO THE RESIDENT.

GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.
